

Soldiers' Angels

"May No Soldier Go Unloved"

Patti Patton-Bader Biographical Data

Patti Patton-Bader founded Soldiers' Angels in 2003 when her oldest son Brandon was stationed in Iraq. Patti is no stranger to the military as her father is Retired Lieutenant Colonel David Patton who completed two tours in Vietnam and one in Korea. She is also the Great Niece of General George S. Patton. Patti was born in Pasadena in 1953 and was raised throughout the world. She is the mother of three, two of whom are in the Army. Patti strives to ensure that Soldiers' Angels motto rings through to all:

*May no soldier go unloved,
May no soldier walk alone,
May no soldier be forgotten,
Until they all come home.*
